

This is just a brief letter to update supporters on our WOMAD experience. The Trust decided to hold a stall at WOMAD this year to sell books, cards, jewellery and other sundries. We imported jewellery from Hunza with the help of Tama's friend Lizzie Doherty and applied to run a stall. The application was accepted so we loaded up the car, got 11 Trust members and other volunteers to run the stall, as it has to be open til midnight each day of the music festival, and set off.

Julie Wade (UK) Julie Brunton and Matt Grant (Masterton). Banner designed by Tama Pugsley and Ami Mitchell.

The stall was very successful. We made a profit of $1000 or so and added 37 names to our supporters list. We had a great weekend, and many more people now know about the Trust.

Welcome to the Trust, you 37 people, and thanks for your interest.

You can find out how the Trust runs on our website

I'm going to be overseas for the next three months, probably in Pakistan for some of the time. I'll let you know how it goes. The Trust has a Facebook site, so please join up and keep an eye on it in June.
